

Do you know someone who is

Suddenly Alone?

They are not alone.

Do you know a woman who is struggling with a major change in her life—a death of a spouse or someone important in her life? Or a recent divorce? Lifetime Planning is now hosting a monthly luncheon for those who are “suddenly alone.”

“Please join us. I know from experience how much it means to get helpful information and be with others who understand how it feels.”
—WENDY POTTER
